COURSE INFORMATION

The General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) was an international trade agreement signed by 23 nations, including Canada, in 1947. GATT came into effect on 1 January 1948 and was refined over eight rounds of negotiations, leading to the creation of the World Trade Organization (WTO), which replaced GATT in 1995. But is it as theoretical as it seems ? No, there had been a host of legal development whirling the transformation. In this era of international cooperation, we at The LAW Learners aim to make our takers aware about the ground level working of the organizations thereby paving multiple future ways in area of International Law.

The Course shall help you understand,

- Introduction and the Formation of GATT
- Advent of the World Trade Organization
- Role and Functions of the Organization

ASSESSMENT

The Assessment of course takers shall be based a Short Assignment consisting of Analytical Questions. There shall be a total of 5 Analytical Questions of 10 Marks each, which the course takers would have to submit on the conclusion of the course. This ensures that the participants have learnt a substantial part of the course content.

Passing Marks - 25
