COURSE INFORMATION

Oppression and Mismanagement has been provided under Section 241 of the Companies Act 2013. A company can only function in a sustainable manner when the affairs of the company are conducted in a manner which is not prejudicial to its members or directors. Oppression and Mismanagement carries a huge significance because if it lies uncontrolled, the company may either be wound up or the affairs may be governed by the Tribunal.

We at The LAW Learners endeavour to present the concept of oppression and mismanagement in a simple yet lucid manner and make it easier for all the law students to comprehend simply.

The Course shall help you understand,

- Meaning and Significance of Oppression and Mismanagement
- What does Oppression and Mismanagement lead to ?
- View of the Tribunals and the Courts
