COURSE INFORMATION

Intestate succession remained a matter of concern for a long period of time. There remained a lot of uncertainties surrounding the same. However, finally in 1956 the Parliament took the lead and codified the succession of self acquired property by virtue of the Hindu Succession Act 1956. The act deals with the succession of both male and female property succession.

We at The LAW Learners present this course with an idea to understand the law of Hindu succession prevailing in the nation. It as well deals with the latest amendments. TLL believes that a basic idea of Hindu succession is inescapable for a law student.

The Course shall help you understand,

- Provisions of the Hindu Succession Act
- 2005 Amendment to the Act
- Significant case laws of the act.

ASSESSMENT
