

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What is a Summer School ?

A summer school is generally a precisely designed set of courses offered to students by various schools or institutes during their summer vacations. The Courses are handpicked and selected in a manner that they benefit a major chunk of the students across the Nation or the Globe as the case may be. The distinguishing feature of a summer school is that it is open to all the interested students Nationwide or across the globe depending upon their respective area of interest.

2. Why should I attend the First International Virtual Summer School by Indian National Law Review, The LAW Learners?

TLL is bringing the 1st ever Virtual International Summer School in India – VISS 2020 with an aim to deliver quality lectures to the students across the Globe. The Summer School shall have lectures from various International Jurists, Professors, Academicians across the globe, on diversified areas of Law, a detailed schedule of which has already been provided in the brochure. The registered students also get an Opportunity to submit their research papers on any legal topic, and such papers, if selected by the editorial committee, shall form a part of the Special Book released on account of the proceedings of the VLSS. Summer Schools come at hefty registration fees, minimum of which goes into several lakhs. However, we bring to you an opportunity to attend VISS 2020, at a highly subsidized fees. You get to attend lectures from 8 renowned personalities across the globe, along with getting the certificate of Participation coupled with the chance of the best papers getting published in the book.

3. How to Register?

You would have to Pay the Registration Fees and then fill the Registration form to Book your Slot.

4. How long will be the Sessions?

The Sessions would range from 1 hour to 2.5 hours each.

5. What if I am unable to attend the sessions live? Can I get access to them later?

It is always the first priority that the students attend the proceedings LIVE as it shall have multiple benefit. However, if there are some genuine reasons for being unable to attend the LIVE sessions, we shall share the recordings with you after being intimated of such reasons whatsoever.

6. What benefits does it have for me?

The Certificates which would be provided to the students shall carry hefty value adding up magnificently into their value of CV, both in present and future prospects. All the Participants have an Opportunity to Submit their Research Papers, on any legal topic, so as to be get published in a Book, to be released by VISS 2020. Apart from that, Publication Opportunity shall be provided to the top performers in INLR. In addition, an LoR and Certificate of Merit signed by international dignitaries and Research Internship opportunity with TLL shall be provided to the participants. Last but not the least, an exclusive 20 percent off on courses shall be provided to all participants.

7. Is it open to International Students?

Yes. The School is open to all including International Students, but with a slight higher fee. You may get in touch at viss2020@thelawlearners.com

8. Other than attending, do I have any other any other opportunity as well?

Yes, we have an exciting opportunity to get your Papers Published in the Summer School Proceedings, to be published in September, 2020. The Top 80 Selected Papers, shall be published in the International Summer School Proceedings 2020, with a nominal handling and maintenance fee.

VIRTUAL INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL 2020

9. How to Submit my Paper for consideration?

Upon Registration for the VISS 2020, you shall receive an Acknowledgement, which carries the link for Paper Submission. You may submit your Paper through it.

10. I am not a law student. Can I be a part of VISS 2020?

We encourage law students, legal professionals, advocates and academicians to be a part of VISS 2020. However, If you are really interested, feel free to participate.